Art Unit: 1732

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1, 2, 4-13, 16, 18-55 and 77-80 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-19 of U.S. Patent No. 6,990,744. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because of the reasons set forth in the previous Office action.

3. Claims 57, 65-68 and 81 are allowed.

4. Applicants' arguments filed November 1, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue, with regard to the double patenting rejection, that the subject matter (of the '744 patent) is completely unrelated to and not obvious with respect to a method of capturing a negative impression of an anatomical portion of a person (claim 1) or a method of creating a support contour for a seat cushion (claims 35 and 41 (sic)). Applicants note that one technique involved in evaluating the clearance between the support contour and the pelvic anatomy, as described in the '744 patent, involves crushing a foam material but argue that the crushed foam material serves as only a gauge for evaluating a clearance between a support contour of a pre-existing seat cushion and the pelvic anatomy of a person who uses the cushion. This is not persuasive because, to the examiner, the steps practiced in the claimed process of the '744 patent indeed involve taking or capturing a negative impression of an anatomical portion of a person, as in instant claim 1, and it is the examiner's position that it is known to use such an impression to create a support contour for a seat cushion from such an impression and that this would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

5.THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

6.Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Allan Kuhns whose telephone number is (571) 272-
